

Claroline.com

Claroline is also a team at the service of individuals and organisations willing to set online courses and blended learning programs.

Among the services offered :

- Training
- Consulting
- Hosting
- Support
- Customization

More information :
info@claroline.com

Training

The team Claroline.com has gained experience in the integration of eLearning in professional contexts. We propose training courses in this field, more specifically about the use of the Claroline platform.

Technical and organisational matters can be part of our intervention.

Some examples of training courses:

- Getting started with Claroline
- Building learning contents
- Learning how to manage a platform

More specific or contextual courses can be proposed on demand.